OPENING HYMN

Womb of Life

TFWS #2046

1. Womb of life, and source of being, home of every restless heart, in your arms the worlds a wakened; you have loved us from the start. We, your children, gather ‘round you, at the table you prepare. Sharing stories, tears, and laughter, we are nurtured by your care.
2. Word in flesh, our brother Jesus, born to bring us second birth, you have come to stand beside us, knowing weakness, knowing earth. Priest who shares our human struggles, Life of Life, and Death of Death, Risen Christ, come stand among us, send the Spirit by your breath.
3. Brooding Spirit, move among us; be our partner, be our friend. When our memory fails, remind us whose we are, what we intend. Labor with us, aid the birthing of the new world yet to be, free of servant, lord, and master, free for love and unity.
4. Mother, Brother, Holy Partner; Father, Spirit, Only Son: We would praise your name forever, One in three, and Three in one. We would share your life, your passion, share your word of world made new, ever singing, ever praising, one with all, and one with you.

ACTS OF PROCLAMATION

SCRIPTURE

John 3:1-17

A certain Pharisee named Nicodemus, a member of the Sanhedrin, came to Jesus at night. "Rabbi," he said, "we know you're a teacher come from God, for no one can perform the signs and wonders you do, unless by the power of God."

Jesus gave Nicodemus this answer:

"The truth of the matter is,
Unless one is born from above,
One cannot see the kin-dom of God."

Nicodemus said, "How can an adult be born a second time? I can't go back into my mother's womb to be born again!"

Jesus replied:

"The truth of the matter is,
no one can enter God's kin-dom
without being born of water and the Spirit.
What is born of the flesh is flesh;
what is born of the Spirit is Spirit.
So don't be surprised when I tell you that you must be born from above.

The wind blows where it will.
You hear the sound it makes,

But you don't know where it comes from or where it goes.
So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit."

"How can this be possible?" asked Nicodemus.
Jesus replies, "You're a teach of Israel, and you still don't understand these matters?"

“The truth of the matter is,
we’re talking about what we know;
we’re testifying about what we’ve seen—
yet you don’t accept our testimony.

If you don’t believe
when I tell you about earthly things,
how will you believe
when I tell you about heavenly things?
No one has gone up to heaven
except the One who came down from heaven—
the Chosen One.

As Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert,
so the Chosen One must be lifted up,
so that everyone who believes in the Chosen One might have eternal life.
Yes, God so loved the world
as to give the Only Begotten One,
that whoever believes may not die,
but have eternal life.

God sent the Only Begotten into the world
not to condemn the world, but that through the Only Begotten
the world might be saved.

ONE: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.
ALL: Thanks be to God.

CLOSING HYMN Let There Be Peace on Earth UMH #431
Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me; let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be. With God our creator, children all are we. Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony. Let peace begin with me; let this be the moment now. With every step I take, let this be my solemn vow: to take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally. Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT STATEMENT

Central United Methodist Church acknowledges that the building in which we carry out our collective life together occupies and is built upon land that is part of what was first known as Waawiyaataanong (“At the curved shores.”), the ancestral and contemporary homeland of the Three Fires Confederacy, but which is now referred to as Detroit. In 1807 the Ojibwe, Odawa, Potawatomi, and Wyandot nations granted use of these sovereign lands to the US government through the Treaty of Detroit. Central United Methodist Church affirms the continued Indigenous sovereignty over these lands and honors all tribes with a connection to Detroit. We commit ourselves to working together with our native brothers and sisters to advance equity in all dimensions of life and to promote a better future for the earth and all its peoples.
